PAYETTEVILLE, TENN: THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 1855. WHOLE NO. 242.

MINERAL WESS I Two Dollars for one year if paid a the time of subscription; Two Dollars mad Pifty Cents, WITHOUT DEVIATION after the expiration of three months. Walt Balls for Advertisements, Job-Work, or Subscription, considered due, when contrasted, except against those with whom we have running accounts. 07 Sabscribers failingto order a discontinuance of the paper, at the expiration of the time sidered as wishing to renew; and it will be continued to them accordingly. No Paper will be sent out of the county ubless paid for in advance. BEFAdvertisements inserted at One Dollar per Square of Twelve Lives Cent's for each continuance.

Persons advertising by the year, will be charged Pairty Dollars for a whole col-Twenty Dollars for one-half. Yen Dalfars for one-quarter. No deputtion from these terms under any circumstances The privilege of yearly advertisars is strictly limited to their own immediate and regular business; and the business of an advertising from is not considered as including that of its individual members

OF Announcing candidates Phree Dollars to be paid in a tounce in every case. ber of inserious whou handed in, will be continued until ordered out, and payment exerted 6.7 No alvertisament can be inserte i grate iously

TAdvertisements of a personal nature, inva-rially charged double price. done on New Type, and on as reasonable terms as any office in Tennescencia acrearages are paid up except at the option of American Medical Gazette estimates as a preparation and prelude to the you to the end, was the brave re- way, and laughing so heartily. that one physician is required for eve- coming entertainment. ry 700 inhabitants. This would give At precisely eleven o'clock, two 'Who is reckoned the chief of the the person indicated, and making a all human probability, was to be the over 80,000 in the nation. It is men might have been seen walking up French duellists? inquired Jack T., low bow of mock politeness, said: last that one or both of them should probable that the average life of a the Rue Rumpart, whose appearance, after being silent for a few minutes. My dear sir, may I be permitted to ever hear, until called out of their physician is not over thirty years after as revealed by the cloudless radiance Beyond all comparison, Louis Vil- ask what you see in my person or graves by the voice of God at the he enters his profession. Hence it of the full moon, would have attract- lere,' replied Captain Dye, without conduct to amuse you so highly?' . day of final fire! follows by computation, that the waste ed attention among any people of the an instant's hesitation. by death alone, is one thousand phy- world. One was a person of the What is his chosen weapon, asked 'And you are a villain and a cow- had thickened and blackened almost sicims a year. But more are lost by most powerful make, muscular and the other. change of business than by death; agile as Hercules, with fearless force The pistol, although he is nearly sounded through the hall like a peal it seemed impossible for the fees to and this loss might be estimated with in every footfall, as it cracked loud as good with the sword, and he is far of thunder. out exaggaration at 1,300. We have, and defiantly on the pavement. His before any professional teacher of There, take my glove! exclaimed It was indeed an awful time for broththen, an actual loss of 2,500 physi- large blue eyes, glowing cheeks, and either exercise in New Orleans, or Villere, springing upon his feet, and ers of the same exalted kind, encians annually, which must be made smiling countenance betokened even in Paris, where he astonished horling the missile alluded to fully in dowed with reasoning couls and hearts up. Again, the increase of popula- mirthfulness, benevolence, magna- all their schools by his matchless the other's face. tion in the United States is about nimity, and unconquerable courage, skill only a couple of years ago." 700,000 a year, which it requires an without, however, a tincture of mal- 'Has he fixed much real fire?' in the powerful band of Jack T. that increase of 1,000 physicians to sup- ice or revenge. He was richly and terrogated Jack T., in accents be- stretched the astonished Frenchman curred to them. They only cursed required twenty-three hundred new heavy gold chain almost inseparable He has been engaged in affairs of did the latter have one second's time physicians in the United States year- from the officers of vessels on the honor two or three times annually, to recover from his surprise, for the ly. To meet this, we have only 1,400 river. As he was generally acquaint- ever since he was eighteen years of blow was followed by a rapid succesgraduates from the schools, and about ed with the citizens of New Orleans, age, and now he is thirty eight, an- sion of irresistible kicks that marred 300 foreigners, making in all 1,700, I may as well name him at once. swered Dye. and leaving an actual deficiency of This was Captain Dye, the command-600 a year, to be supplied by irregu- er of a steamboat in the St. Louis fortune? continued the other, in tones kable energy and precision, until the lar practitioners.

The Vincennes Gazette states that an officer in that place recently went stolen goods, which were eventually Missouri, on a first visit to the Cresfound in the possession of a bouncing servant girl. Among other things girl put in her mouth and "shut down that seemed to have been thrown to was a fine worked collar, which the on it." The officer, determined not to be foiled in this way, run his finger in the girn's mouth in order to pull out the collar, when she opened, and taking his finger between her teeth, crushed it almost to a jelly. -The officer not liking the trap, jerked out his finger, and the girl swallowed the collar. This ended the search, as the officer concluded the collar was then beyond his jurisdiction.

was entered by burglars, who carried of Cromwell. His jaw, especially, have the choice of weapons. I must whose powers had long before inoff silks, satios, and other costly was massive as that of a red tiger, turn the matter over in my mind. spired all the country along the Upgoods to the amount, it is estimated, and it appeared even more so by conof seven thousand dellars. The most trast with the firm, yet thin lips, that remarkable thing about the burglary looked inflexible as if they had been ball-room. is, that two gentlemen, including one cut out of strips of sheet iron. It of the proprietors, slept in the store was, however, the small grey eye up his arms, receiving checks, prop- the Crescent City. Indeed, he might and dumb since his ninth year, was taken with violent spasms of the chest about a week ago, and, after throwing up a small quantity of blood, found that his hearing and power of speech were entirely restored.

The passengers in a balloon excursion state that at the height of 14,000 feet above the earth, everything spoin about a minute, in an echo as clear and distinct as the words spoken for which they may have subscribed, are con- corner of Toulouse, and consequent- had been but a walking-stick, a rifle when the rumor reached this apart- swore that he would not fight with amusements, hand-bills, announcing cious metals. or first, for the first insertion; Fifty the fact, had been in circulation for Captain Dye addressed his singu- also to have some fun at the expense obliged to submit, or run the risk of crowds commenced pouring into the 'You will surely have to fight one Jack T.'s face, however, did not behind which distant thunder rolled evergreens of that sweet clime of eternal summer and the sun. And there, since the happy day had fainted and died in the west in all its glory of said Jack T., in a voice of musical,

since the happy day had fainted and
said Jack T., in a voice of musical,
summer and roll as it respects dressing, fighting, appearing in all public places at will,
seemed to literally lighten at his fees as he asked Captain Dye in a whisof the principals and seconds on the GLEANINGS FROM PAPERS, crimson and gold, a chosen band of almost feminine sweetness, but at the His friend answered—he is not ground. They arrived very nearly PHYSICIANS.—The editor of the ling melody, devoted to love or war, Very well, go on, and I will back ly dressed man who is looking this the space agreed upon, they assumed

There are, therefore, actually even elegantly dressed, and wore the traying a slight touch of interest.

trade, and he had landed but a few hours before at the levee.

His companion, who had come down as a passenger with him from physical qualities. He was tall, bony, with long, awkward looking limbs, gether at random. Nothing could be detected in his ungainly figure to single glasce at his face was suffi- your opinion, if Louis Villere and and he threw it down at the other's cient to elicit from every beholder the remark, "This can be no ordinary man." His features, it is true, could not be called handsome-they were not even regular-but they wore that dark and almost dread expression of intense power in passion, On Thursday night, at Cincinnati, day of danger, which we may read to east the onus on him, and force Orleans. Always on hand. Cameron's extensive dry good store with so much facility in the portraits him to challenge me, and then I will This was the mame of a duellist, that uncovered most the deepest se- erly numbered, from the policeman, be said to be everywhere known crets of his soul. This was fiery, who took all such deadly implements throughout the west as a dead shot, restless, piercing, and had the strange in charge, so as to insure their re- a man of strange eccentricity, and of ty-two years of age, residing at Me-dina, New York, who had been deaf over the right shoulder and then over The two friends then passed on into his panel dearship dates. over the right shoulder and then over The two friends then passed on into his usual deerskin dress. over the right shoulder and then over the grand saloon, where bundreds of On the following day, a meeting jolting motion causes the eyes to many small vineyards, with almost We have discovered, by a nice calgainst surprise from some unseen splendidly-attired men and women, was arranged between the duellists enemy. His countenance altogether indicated the multiform characteristics of the antique hero, the greatgainst surprise from some unseen splendidly-attired men and women, was arranged between the duellists ties of the antique hero, the great- waltz, with looks as voluptuous as the near the site of Algiers. As the withstanding it was well known that . 'Say no more,' answered the other, Buckskin?' 'Is the game plentiful mortal issue about to be decided the ladies intending to be present in an irritated tone; I would go if I in Texas this season?' Where did This was the more remarkable, as the would be more distinguished for beau- knew that I should be compelled to you come from last-from Missouri, day broke amidst thick volumed masty than modest deportment. At fight in succession every Frenchman or from the moon? 'Will you not see of gloomy clouds, through the length the time, so anxiously looked in New Orleans -- and every Ameri- have a dance?' 'Would you not rifled edges of which quick lightfor, arrived, and at an early hour can, too, for that matter.' rather take a drink?'

vast halls, which had been brilliantly Frenchman, if no more, provided you change its expression of iron-like re- at intervals with a heavy jarring lighted and adorned gorgeously with enter the ball in your present garb,' pose and darkened gloom. Not a sound that seemed to shake the solid of perceptible eagerness.

wings and cripples him at the word, buckskin from his prostrate and help- gether. But no one heard either reand thus he is enabled to escape with- less victim. out a wound; and when he wields the When the latter arose, Jack T. re. a simultaneous peal of thunder loud sword, his thrust is prompt and dead- marked -- 'Now, sir Frenchman, the enough to wake the dead, while the ly as the lightning.'

cing his companion, inquired sternly; ify either you or any of your sympa-What would be the consequence, in thising friends. Here is my card, myself were to combat with pistols?' feet, and turning carelessly on his same instant,' said the other.

bearted savage, and something, per- music which guided that have none haps, of the fallen angel, and in that haps, of the fallen angel, and in that shadow of immeasurable sadness engaged to notice the advent of the of death, and he selected rifles, the of your own. which hung always in unbroken gloom eccentric stranger. But very soon a distance to be fifty yards. The which hung always in unbroken gloom which hung always in unbroken gloom upon his brow.

His clothing and equipments were very remarkable. His entire exte-

which the property of the second seco the belt, which, on the outside of all, usual, on account of its facilities for this the Americans replied that the A Scene in New Orleans in 1830. encircled his waist, contained two gaming, had collected all the most combat with guns, had long been One Christmas night in the year long duelling pistols, their handles desperate characters, such as regard- sauctioned, and even by immemorial 1830, a masked ball was given in a sparkling with a profusion of gold ed the pastime of dancing as a custom all over western States, and large brick bouse, which then stood and silver mountings; and he carried senseless sort of trifling, fit for none therefore it was rendered honorable in the Rue Rampart, not far from the in his right hand, as easily as if it save women and boys. Immediately, at least by prescription; and as Smith ly in the French division of the city. of extraordinary length and weight, ment dedicated to drink, dice, and anything but rifles, and actually The occasion promised to be a grand which was also embelished as much cards, that a human phenomena had threatened to repeat the chastiseone; and to furnish the most varied as possible with jewels and the pre- made his appearance, they all rushed ment which he had inflicted upon forth to enjoy the sight; determined Villere, the French party was finally weeks among the vessels in harbor, far companion - Jack T. I sincerely of the daring intruder. According being doubly disgraced. and had been nailed up in all the wish I could dissuade you from at- ly, different individuals hailed him Accordingly, at sunrise the succeeddrinking saloons, and in the most tending the ball. It will certainly with various acclamations, such as ing more, an immense concourse of conspicuous places at the taverns not- result in bad consequences. the following: 'How are you, Mr. spectators assembled to witness the festoons of natural and artificial flow- rejoined his friend with a smile. nerve in his whole system trembled. globe over a circuit of many miles, ers, intermingled with the emerald 'I am in a free country, I believe, Only the small grey eyes turned as if it had issued out of the earth musicians had been sounding their same time flashing a look of terrible among that rude set, but is yonder at the same instant; and after preinstruments in many a soft or start- import from his small, twinkling eyes. in a chair there; that is he, the rich- paring their arms, and measuring off

'You are a fool!' retorted Villere. ard! cried Jack T, in tones that re- to the darkness of a tempest, so that

With the act came a blow from his full length along the floor; nor internally the unexpected darkness, 'Has he never met with any mis- which they were aimed with remarbystanders interfered and separated 'Never,' was the response: 'he al- the combalants; or, to speak more ted, for at the last intenation of the ways brings down his foe, or else properly, separated the man in term fire, both rifles went off toonus is with you to seek satisfaction. Jack T. suddenly halted, and fa- and I shall be but too happy to grat-'You would both fall dead at the heel, left the bail-room in company with Captain Dye.

Then we will not fight with pis- When they picked up the supposed tols,' remarked Jack T., as if talking hunter's card, and read it, no words to him. I must see if we cannot can paint their astonishment. It find something else to fight with; and read thus: 'Jack Smith T., of Misand self centrol and coolness in the in order to do that, I must manage souri, No. 8 St. Charles street, New

Here Jack T. was obliged to yield years been heard in the streets of bearted savage, and something, per- music which guided their movements. American was the challenged party, Tife in the South West and destinate of all ornament, while the adjacent bar-room, which, as such implement of destruction. To rior dress consisted of tanned buck- through the hall, and penetrated into they alleged, did not admit of any nings occasionally twinkled, and far their appropriate stations, and stood Jack T. then hastily approached waiting for the fatal word, which, in

But, at the mement, the clouds take aim with any sort of accoracy. capable of infinite affections, to shed deliberately each other's blood.

However, no such thoughts ocwhich diminished the chances of bringing the combat to a speedy close.

At length, the word was given: 'Gentlemen, are you ready?'

'Ready!' 'Fire-one--'

The remainder of the sentence usual in such cases, was not complecome one vast sea of electric fireone illimitable, blinding blaze of light, such as a sun might be imagined to yield should it explode!

When the spectators recovered the use of their eyes and safficient presence of mind to glance at the battlefield, they beheld Louis Villere stretched on the earth a corpse, with a stream of blood running from the bullet-hole in his breast, while his adversary stood erect and unharmed .-The latter immediately approached and leisurely scrutinized his victim, exclaiming, as he perceived the locality of the wound-What a very bad shot! I aimed at the head, and ning may, perhaps, account for it.'

Several instances have lately been and between the trees, emis distant, that we think he's of no use at all." recorded where persons who were in are planted apple and tear trees, the habit of reading much in rail- which will take the place of the peach. A Long Journay. The mearest way cars had become nearly blind, trees when they are removed from old fixed star is so far distant from us. and an express agent near Boston has age. Another enclosure has 5000 that a cannon ball going five hundred totally lost his sight, it being impu- grape-vines, set out in uniform order, miles in an hour, would require four ted to that cause. It appears the and all bearing fruit. He has also million years to reach it. - Erchange

To become respected, say "yes," to

For the Buyetteville Observer. Mr. Wallace: Should you deem the following lines worthy a place in your columns, you will gratify the writer by placing them there. I will add only that they were written for a nuch loved sister's Album.

This world, sweet sister, his agreed, By men of ev'ry faith and creed, Is not a place of lasting bliss --Yet leads to better spheres than this. Heav'n is not here: It lies beyond The confines of the narrow tomb. But here we all may well prepare To taste the raptures premised there. There is a type, e'en here below, Of heavenly joyn 74 feel them glow Even now within my yearning breast, Which, panting longs to be at rest, That type, my sister, is the love Which I bear thee where e'er I rove-A love all passionless, and free From aught that's deem'd impurity. O surely such a love as mine and For thee, good sister, is divine-At least is such as angels bear For guileless mortals ev'rywhere. I know you cherish too for me. Love quite as pure as I for thee: This, this it is that makes me know That Heav'n has types e'en here below Let us, dear sister, both combine To show the world our leve's diving-Pure and unsullied as the snow. Or founts through crystal sands that flow. My 1, 13, 20, is a preposition. Thus shall we, while in flesh confin'd, My 15, 7, 10, 11, is what merchants Display the wondrous power of Mind;

Can make a mimic Heav'a of Earth. Yes, now, when all too late, you find our birth.

One loving heart is worth, The kindness of the world combined-The friendship of the earth; And frowns, like cloudlets over the sun Sweep o'er that haughty brow; But all in vain, fair, fickle one-I do not love thee now!

Not since I broke thy galling chain, In love's most tender tone, A thousand ears have heard the strain Once breathed to thee alone; For when that studied charm was o'er I made a solemn vow To court thy siren smiles no more-

I do not love thee now! On all who praised, nor were they few. Those smiles ere while were poured, But frown on me when well you knew

- How madly I adored, My heart, though scathed and sore, is free, And se'er again can bow So low as once it bowed to thee --I do not love thes now!

And busy rumor, too, reveals Thy boast in former days --"How lowly my poor lover kneels!-How fervently he prays! 'Tis true! ah, yes, I worshipped then, Too lowly, I allow; But never breathe that boast again-

I do not love thee now! I read, when that proud lip would curl, The thoughts you could not hide; You loved -- and yet, base minded girl, Would make me feed your pride; But now my freedom is regained-Thy heart will tell thee how.

And now I feel what you but feigned-I do not love thee now! The blow recoils, and well I know That at this very hour, Thou'dst gladly give thine all below For half thy former power;

But vain you use those winning arts. None better known than thou-A bourbeless waste divides our hearts-I cannot love thee now!

Theodore G. Hants who wated no ston the sound son and and all againt the Nebraska Acti was defeat. Emerson, in a lecture on the Aned for Compress in the late election gl - American, says: Americans would

For the Fanctico Me Observer. Geographical Enignia Aerosffed! Tam composed of 17 lefters.

My 1, 4, 2, 6, 12, is a river in North of Americal de sanivas ed bas emelt My 2, 14, 6, 16, is the capitol of a

My 3, 4, 6, are mountains in Austria.

My 4, 6, 10, is a river in the U. States My 5, 4, 2, 6, 12, 2, is a county firm ins New Yorks so dearen to de soult My 6, 4, 17 2, is a lake in Is lind. My 7, 9, 6, 2, 17, is a county in Wis-

My 8, 10, 6, 9, is a river in Germany My 9, 6, 10, is a sea in Asia.

My 10, 11, 17, is a river in Russia. My 11, 13, 6, is a river in Asia.

My 12, 6, 17, is a river in England. My 13, 15, 10, 10, 14, is a city in My 14, 13, 11, 15, 7, is a town in Russia. My 15, 6, 14, is a county in Missouri. My 16, 15, 11, 17, 2, 13, is a mountain in Oceanica. My 17, 6, 7, 15, 16, is a river in Buenos Avres. My whole was a distinguished poet:

ENIGMA. I am composed of 20 lefters. My 17, 9, 18, 12, 5, is something about a knife.

wish toodoe and the stale manage Which, though thus, "Cribb'd" elen from My 11, 9, 4, is what some newspapers do.

My 6, 2, 17, is used about wagons My 20, 3, 12, is a kind of grain. Yes, now, waen all loo Late, you Find My 8, 10, 15, 5, is a kind of garment. -

My 14, 10, 7, 6, is something wised in gardens, cribus feet of the service My 14, 2, 5, is an animal. My 6, 2, 3, 11, 13, 20, was President of the United States. My whole is a Newspaper published at in the United States.

Answers to Enigmas in last week's Observer .- "Do 'not borrow again." and "Choctawhatchie Bay."

A Saddlebass Grocery.

Among the presentments of the Grand Jury of Cass county, Georgia; the first week, we notice the following: "The Grand Jury of the present week would also most respectfully represent it as their opinion, that something like a saddlebags grocery has been kept by Alie Superior Court of this week, in the august personage of one of the constables, without licens; wherefore we cannot safely conclude that the Temperance cause is highly esteemed, by that arm of the law. and while we exonerate the Court from a knowledge even of this newly established feature in the traffic, still we must set our faces against all saddie-bag groceries, and more especially when kept by a constable in attend-ance upon the Court. The particular constable we have concluded thus to cannonise, and hand his deeds of consummate effrontery and shame, down to future constables, as a well-marked instance of willful contempt for Court We did not see the liquor, but we did see the saddle-bags - and it is the deliberate opinion of this Jary that no other Jury ever saw a pair of saddlebags that smalt like a jug of brandy before-for they smelt like the had been broken Now, a constable i quite a small appendage to the Court A Mr. Thomson, at Napa Valley, any how, and when he grows so beau-California, has upon his ranch a peach tifelly less, as to become part and parhit the heart. That flash of light- orchard half a mile square. The cel of saddle-bags, that smells just trees, two, three, and four years old, like a broken jug of brandy, he atare set 24 feet apart, in straight lines, tains to a station so small in our eyes